

Why Lincoln Was a Lawyer:

Abraham Lincoln, the Law & Civic Education

Volunteer Sign-Up Form

The Indiana Supreme Court and the Indiana State Bar Association invite schools and attorneys in Indiana to participate in "Why Lincoln Was a Lawyer: Abraham Lincoln, the Law & Civic Education," a program celebrating the bicentennial of President Abraham Lincoln. Indiana attorneys and legal professionals will have the opportunity to participate in this celebration by volunteering to speak in classrooms statewide about Lincoln as a model citizen on Friday, May 1, 2009 – Law Day as designated by the ABA.

As a volunteer speaker, you will receive materials to assist with your presentation. Thank you for your participation in this exciting celebration! For more information, please contact Dr. Elizabeth Osborn, Assistant to the Chief Justice for Court History and Public Education, at eosborn@courts.state.in.us or 317.232.2550.

Name _____

Check one: Attorney _____ Paralegal _____ Law Student _____

Firm Name/Organization _____

Address _____

City _____ State _____ Zip _____

County _____

Phone _____ Fax _____

E-mail _____

What counties are you available to speak in? _____

Special Requests (times unavailable, certain schools requested, etc.) _____

RETURN FORM BY MONDAY, APRIL 6th, 2009 TO:

WHY WAS LINCOLN A LAWYER?
Indiana Supreme Court
200 West Washington Street, Room 304
Indianapolis, IN 46204
Fax – 317.233.2990
shachey@courts.state.in.us

You will receive an e-mail confirmation that you have signed up, please check back if you have not heard anything after a few days.